ABOUT ME

A motivated and enthusiastic programmer. I am currently looking for a position as a programmer to use my strong IT skills.

PERSONAL QUALITIES

- Patient
  - When I need to explain something to someone, I do it in a calm manner and repeat it until he or she has understood it and/or can complete the task independently.
- Curious
  - I love learning new programming languages and IT concepts. When performing tasks, I want to know not only how, but also why.
- Helpful
  - I enjoy helping people. It gives me a great feeling when I have been able to do something for someone.
